

How soon can I use my Member Privilege?

If you are a new account holder, you may be able to use the overdraft privilege service 90 days after the account is opened, assuming you demonstrate responsible account management by making regular deposits to maintain your account with a positive balance, and there are no legal orders, levies or liens against your account.

What are some other ways I can cover overdrafts at New Dimensions Federal Credit Union?

The best way to avoid overdrafts and bounced check fees is to manage your account so you don't overdraw it.

However, if a mistake occurs, New Dimensions Federal Credit Union offers additional ways to cover overdrafts in addition to Member Privilege.

Member Privilege® Overdraft Policy

An insufficient balance can result from several events, such as (1) the payment of checks, electronic funds transfers or other withdrawal requests; (2) payments authorized by you; (3) the return of unpaid items deposited by you; (4) credit union service charges; or (5) the deposit of items which, according to the credit union's Funds Availability Policy, are treated as not yet available or finally paid. We are not obligated to pay any item presented for payment if your account does not contain sufficient funds. However, if you maintain your account in good standing, we may approve your overdrafts within your current available Member Privilege limit as a non-contractual courtesy. Your account is in good standing if you (1) demonstrate responsible account management—such as making regular deposits to bring your account to a positive balance at least once every 30 days (including the payment of all credit union fees and charges and having no past due loans more than 15 days); (2) avoid excessive overdrafts suggesting the use of Member Privilege as a continuing line of credit, and (3) there are no legal orders, levies or liens against your account. You may be able to access your Member Privilege limit 12 times during a calendar year. In addition, based upon our review of your account management, if we determine you may be using Member Privilege as a regular line of credit by creating excessive overdrafts, we may suspend the privilege without any prior notice. In the normal course of business, we generally pay electronic transactions first and then checks beginning with the lowest dollar amount, per the credit union's policy. We reserve the right to change the order of payment without notice to you if we suspect fraud or possible illegal activity affecting your account. Also, please be aware that the order of item payment may create multiple overdrafts during a single banking day for which you will be charged our Member Privilege fee of $20 for each overdraft. You may opt out of the privilege at any time, but you are responsible for any overdrawn balances at the time of opting out. Normally, we will not approve an overdraft for you in excess of the predetermined amount assigned to your account type. So as not to exceed your limit, please note that the amount of the overdraft plus the credit union's Member Privilege fee of $20 (per item) will be deducted from the overdraft limit. We may refuse to pay an overdraft for you at any time even though we may have previously paid overdrafts for you. You will be notified by mail of any non-sufficient funds items paid or returned that you may have; however, we have no obligation to notify you before we pay or return any item. The amount of any overdraft plus our Member Privilege fee of $20 that you owe us shall be due and payable upon demand. If there is an overdraft paid by us on an account with more than one owner on the signature card, each owner and agent, if applicable, drawing/presenting the item creating the overdraft, shall be jointly and severally liable for such overdraft plus our Member Privilege fee of $20.

Member Privilege should not be viewed as an encouragement to overdraw your account. As always, we encourage you to manage your finances responsibly. If you would like to have this service removed from your account, please call (800) 326-6190.

Please note that your Member Privilege limit will not be reflected in your balance provided by a teller, at the ATM or through Online Anytime or Tellerphone.

LIMITATIONS: Member Privilege is a non-contractual courtesy that is available to individually/jointly owned accounts in good standing for personal or household use. New Dimensions Federal Credit Union reserves the right to limit participation to one account per household and to discontinue this service without prior notice.

Take The Headache Out Of Overdrafts

At times, unanticipated expenses or unforeseen problems can leave you with too little cash in your share draft account. Having a check returned due to insufficient funds can be a costly, inconvenient and potentially embarrassing experience.

At New Dimensions Federal Credit Union, we do not encourage overdrafts. As always, we encourage you to manage your finances responsibly. However, we want to save you from the additional merchant fees and possible damage to your credit history that might result if a check is returned.

That's why we provide "Member Privilege[®]," a special overdraft service for New Dimensions Federal Credit Union's members.

What is Member Privilege[®]?

Member Privilege[®] is an overdraft service requiring no action on your part. You don't have to sign anything. Your Member Privilege limit amount will be automatically assigned.

How does Member Privilege work?*

As long as you maintain your account in good standing, New Dimensions Federal Credit Union may approve your overdrafts within your current available Member Privilege limit. Whether your overdraft will be paid is discretionary and we reserve the right not to pay. For example, we typically do not pay overdrafts if your account is not in good standing. Your account is in good standing if you (1) demonstrate responsible account management—such as making regular deposits to bring your account to a positive balance at least once every 30 days (including the payment of all credit union fees and charges and having no past due loans more than 15 days); (2) avoid excessive overdrafts suggesting the use of Member Privilege as a continuing line of credit, and (3) there are no legal orders, levies or liens against your account. Please note that the amount of the overdraft plus our Member Privilege fee of $20 for each item will be deducted from your overdraft limit. No interest will be charged on the overdraft balance.

*Please refer to the customer policy for additional details.

How do I know when I use the overdraft limit?

You will receive an overdraft notice in the mail each time items are paid. The notice will show the check number, amount and the Member Privilege fee. You will need to subtract the total fees when balancing your checkbook.

What is my Member Privilege limit? I have two share draft accounts. Can I get Member Privilege on both?

Your Member Privilege limit is $500. If you have multiple accounts for your household, you may designate one account for Member Privilege.

What if I go beyond my Member Privilege limit?

Overdrafts above and beyond your established Member Privilege limit may result in a check or checks being returned to the payee. The Member Privilege fee will be charged per item and assessed to your account. An NSF notice will be sent to notify you of our actions.

How quickly must I repay my Member Privilege?

You should make every attempt to bring your account to a positive balance as soon as possible, and must do so within 30 days. If you are not able to bring your account to a positive balance within 30 days you will receive a letter from New Dimensions Federal Credit Union informing you of the situation and your options. If, thereafter, your account has not been brought to a positive balance, we may suspend your account and take other steps to recover the funds.

What does my Member Privilege cost?

There is no additional cost associated with this privilege unless you use it. You will be charged our standard Member Privilege fee of $20 for each item created by check or through in-person withdrawals, ACH-Auto Debit transactions or other electronic means paid under the limit. (For example, three paid items in one day will result in $60 in Member Privilege fees.) To help you manage your account, the total fees you have paid for Member Privilege and NSF items (both paid and returned) during the current month and for the year-to-date, will be reflected on your monthly share draft statement in accordance with Federal regulations effective October 1, 2006.
